GENEALOGY OF THE

NEWELL FAMILY

1730 - 1963

1907090

Dear Relatives:

On the following pages, I have compiled what information was in my possession only through the interest, labor and kindness of a host of relatives and friends to whom I applied for aid. My sincere thanks are extended to each of you. Without the help that you have given, this task could never have been accomplished.

To the best of my knowledge and belief, the dates and facts are correct. If errors have occurred, I beg your humble pardon.

This has been a pleasant and interesting task, and I hope that you will prize it in years to come.

Sincerely,

Rudy W Henry

Simon Boyer, whose grandfather was William Newell (4A) was enthusiastically interested in the history of the Newell family in America. He visited the Shenandoah Valley from which the family originated in this country, looked through Court House records and traced the Newells as they moved westward across the country. He came to the family reunions with his stories and charts, and displayed his "Family Tree" as he told of the Newells he had visited in his travels. Not everyone understood his narratives but his enthusiasm and sincerity were always warm and inspiring. He felt that the good people of the family should be an inspiration to all the Newells who followed.

One day he went to Dayton, with all of his books and records and gave them to Dr. Thomas E. Newell. "I have been collecting these records for many years", he said, "and now, I'm getting to be an old man and I fear I may die soon and all may be lost". Simon Boyer wanted Dr. Newell to continue his interest in the genealogy and hoped that the records could be preserved in printed form. With this responsibility left to him Dr. Newell, with the help of many others, spent years in accomplishing this dream of Simon Boyer.

THE NEWELLS AND THEIR NAME

The name of Newell is said to have been of Anglo-Saxon origin and derived from the word "neowel", meaning profound or deep, and it is probable that it was give to its original bearer because of his character, at the time of the adoption of surnames in England. It is found in ancient English and early American records in the various forms of Newel, Noewel, Neuwal, Neual, Newall, Neuhall, Newehall, Newhall and Newell, of which the last is the most generally accepted form of today.

The family, like its name, was of Saxon origin and resident in England long prior to the time of the Norman Conquest of England in 1066 by William, the Conqueror. The family were early settlers in the counties of Exford, Herford, Wilts, Chester, Norfolk and Lancaster and at a later date was also to be found in the county of Wigtown and in various part of Ireland. These various branches of the family were, for the most part, of the landed gentry and yeomanry of Great Britian and were very prominent in the public affairs of the nation.

It is said that the first of the name of Newell in New England used the form of "Newhall" and were descended from one Thomas Newhall who lived in the county of Chester in the early fifteenth century and is believed to have descended from one John de Newehall of Wiltshire about the eleventh century. The Newells of New England were probably descended from the same line, as one Thomas Newell is recorded in the latter part of the fifteenth centry as the son of Thomas Newell above mentioned.

In 1630, the brothers, Anthony and Thomas Newell, settled at Salem, Mass. Anthony was the father of at least one son named John and probably of others and Thomas had issue of three children: John, Thomas and Susanna. It is possible that some of the descendents of these two emigrants spelled the name "Newell".

Abraham Newell came to Roxbury, Mass., from Ipswich, England in 1634 and brought with him his wife, Frances and their children: Faith, Ruth, Grace, Abraham, John, Isaac and Jacob.

Abraham, eldest son of the emigrant Abraham, also made his home at Roxbury and had issued by his first wife, whose name is not known, and a son Joseph. He died young and caused his mother's death. In 1652, Abraham married Sussanna Rand and was the father of Abraham, Sussanna, Joseph, Mary, Thomas, Elizabeth, Rebecca, Ruth, John and Robert.

John, second son of the emigrant Abraham, was belied to have died un-married in 1674.

Isaac, third son of the emigrant Abraham, was married to Elizabeth Curtis 1658, by whom he had nine children: Isaac, Josiah (died young), Sarah, Abraham, Elizabeth, Hannah, Ebenezer, Experience and Josiah.

Jacob, fourth and youngest son of the emigrant Abraham, married Martha Gibson in 1657 and their children are Jacob, Martha, Rebecca, Mercy, Samuel, Faith, Mary and Grace.

About 1640 or shortly thereafter, one Thomas Newell came from Hertfordshire England to Hartford, Conn., he later moved to Farmington in the same colony, about 1652. By his wife, Rebecca Olmstead, he was the father of ten children: Rebecca, Mary, John, (died unmarried), Thomas, Hester, Sarah, Martha, Hannah, Samuel and Joseph of whom the last died at the age of 25 years.

Thomas, second son of the emigrant Thomas Newell, made his home at Waterbury, Conn., and was married about 1679 to Elizabeth Wrotham. They were the parents of Thomas, Simon, Susanna, Joseph and Elizabeth, as well as of other daughters whose names are not certain.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The first part of the history of the United States is the story of the early years of the nation. It begins with the first settlers who came to the New World in search of a better life. These settlers were the Pilgrims, who came to the Massachusetts coast in 1620. They were followed by other groups of settlers, including the Puritans, who came to the New England area in the 1630s. The story of the early years of the United States is a story of struggle and achievement. It is a story of the people who built the nation from scratch, and who fought for the principles of liberty and justice for all.

The second part of the history of the United States is the story of the growth of the nation. It begins with the American Revolution, which was fought between 1775 and 1783. The revolution was a struggle for independence from Great Britain. It was a struggle that was fought by a small group of men, but it was a struggle that changed the course of the world. The revolution was a victory for the principles of liberty and justice for all. It was a victory that paved the way for the growth of the nation.

The third part of the history of the United States is the story of the expansion of the nation. It begins with the Louisiana Purchase, which was made in 1803. The purchase was a great victory for the United States, as it doubled the size of the nation. It was a purchase that paved the way for the expansion of the nation. The expansion of the nation was a process that continued for many years. It was a process that was driven by the desire for land and the desire for a better life.

The fourth part of the history of the United States is the story of the civil war. It begins with the secession of the Southern states in 1861. The civil war was a struggle for the preservation of the Union. It was a struggle that was fought by a small group of men, but it was a struggle that changed the course of the world. The civil war was a victory for the principles of liberty and justice for all. It was a victory that paved the way for the growth of the nation.

The fifth part of the history of the United States is the story of the Reconstruction. It begins with the Reconstruction Act of 1867. Samuel, third son of the emigrant Thomas Newell, married Mary Hart in 1683 and is said to have been the father of Samuel, Thomas, John, Mary, Daniel, Nathaniel and Sarah.

One John Newell was living at Charlestown, Mass., before 1665 in which year he married Hannah Larkin. They had at least one son named John and probably other children.

John, son of the emigrant John Newell, had issue by his wife, Hannah: Andrew, Ann, William, Edward, Abigail (died young), Eliphalet.

There were two Joseph Newells residents at Charlestown about the same time. One of these had a wife named Hannah who died in 1681 and a second wife, named Margaret, who died in 1689. Shortly after which time he married a third wife, Elizabeth, by whom he was the father of three sons: Thomas, Andrew, and David. The second Joseph Newell was married about 1682 to Sarah Tuttle, who gave him four children: Mary, Joseph, John (died young) and John and possibly others.

Among the members of the family who were living in New England at early dates but of whom little information can be found, were Andrew Newell of Charlestown, who is said to have come from Bristol, England, sometime before 1684 and Thomas Newhall, who made his home at Malden in 1687. There is also believed to have been a family of this name in the South at an early date but no definite record has been found.

The descendants of these various branches of the family in America have spread to practically every state of the union and have aided in the founding of the nation. They have been noted for their energy, courage, ambition, industry, integrity, piety, moral and physical strength, perservance and fortitude.

Among those of the Newells who fought as officers in the War of the Revolution were Lieutenant Ebenezer Newell of Mass., Captain Jonathan Newell of Mass., Captain Samuel Newell of Virginia and Lieutenant Simeon Newell of Conn.

A few of the many members of the family who have distinguished themselves in America in more recent times are:

Robert Henry Newell of New York, humorist, 1836-1901.

Peter Newell of Ill., illustrator and humorist, 1852-1924.

Frederick Haynes Newell, Penn., Engineer and founder of the United State Reclamation Service, born in 1852.

Sources of information of the above data have been compiled chiefly from:

EARLY SETTLERS IN SHENANDOAH VALLEY

In the book called "Forerunners" by Harry M. Stickler, of Harrisburg, much is written of the early settlers in the Shenandoah Valley, Va., from Penn. Because of the fame of William Penn as a pioneer settler in the Philadelphia colony by 1730, this section was pretty well filled up and new emigrants were constantly arriving. This great emigrant army then began to move westward from Penn. The right wing of that army pushed west across the Alleghenies to Ohio. The left wing spread over northern Maryland and so on down through the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. Some of these people drifted in Kentucky and Tennessee and others to Missouri, Ohio and Indiana. Abraham Lincoln's family were of this left wing. Pennsylvania Pilgrims did not come over on the Mayflower but they did play just as important a part in the building of the American nation as did the Pilgrims of Plymouth Rock or the Cavaliers that landed in Jamestown.

With the exception of a few scattered pioneers, the first settlement of the Shenandoah Valley, Va., occurred in 1732. The first settler, Mr. Heydt (later spelled "Hite"), was a native of Strasburg in Alsace, Germany and had been despoiled by the papists of all his property and therefore sailed for America. He first settled in Montgomery County, Penn, in 1718. He was a man of prominence and of great business ability. He obtained from the Governor of Va., a grant of 25,000 acres of land on condition the land be settled by 200 families. A man by the name of Jacob VanMeter was associated with Mr. Hite in this undertaking.

Mr. Hite, with his family and his sons-in-laws; George Bowman, Jacob Chrisman and Paul Froman and their families, and several others, migrated to Harpers Ferry. George Bowman settled on Cedar Creek about 8 miles south of Stephensburg, where several other families settled, among whom were a family of Newells.

In records left by (4A) William Newell, great grandson of Samuel Newell it states that Samuel Newell was in Virginia in 1751. It is known that he had one son named, Thomas, according to records at the Records office at Woodstock, Virginia.

(2A) - Thomas Newell, son of (1A) - Samuel Newell, was born on Feb. 3, 1730 in Ireland and emigrated to Virginia, arriving on Aug. 1, 1771. He married Margaret Colville the following July. The following children were born to this union:

(3A) - Margaret Newell, b. May 27, 1773, m. James Dowd April 6, 1793 by Rev. Simon Harr.

(3D) - Thomas Newell, b. Oct. 13, 1779, d. Aug. 1, 1780.

(3E) - Thomas Newell, b. May 27, 1782, m. Barbara Miller. This genealogy is of this family of early pioneers.

(3F) - Elizabeth Newell, b. Sept. 21, 1785.

(3E) - Thomas Newell, fifth child of Thomas and Margaret Newell, b. May 27, 1782, m. Barbara Miller, who was the granddaughter of George Miller. He came from Germany and settled on Cedar Creek along with the Newell families. He and his wife and two of their children were killed by the Indians in 1764 as they were spreading flax in the fields a short distance from their house. Another daughter was ill in bed and when she heard the shots, ran for help. The late Thomas Newell informed the author that he was then a young man and he and many others went to the aid of the Millers. After killing the Millers, the Indians tried to burn the house by setting fire to the Bible but the fire soon smothered out. This Bible was in possession of the Miller family when the author saw and examined it. The fire had been placed about the center of the book. In 1851, this Bible was still in existence. (Copied from "History of the Valley of Virginia", fourth edition by Samuel Kercheval).

CHAPTER ONE

DESCENDENTS OF (4A) - WILLIAM NEWELL (1803-1889)

FIRST CHILD OF THOMAS AND BARBARA (MILLER)

NEWELL

CHAP. IV.

THE HISTORY OF THE CITY OF LONDON.

FROM THE FOUNDATION OF THE CITY TO THE PRESENT TIME.

1700.

(4A) - William Newell, first child of (3E) - Thomas and Barbara Miller Newell, b. May 3, 1803 in Shenandoah Valley, Va., d. in Putnam Co., Ohio. After the death of his father in 1815, he was "bound out" as was a custom in those days, to a man by the name of Ewing, (a brother of Senator Ewing, who adopted and raised Gen. Wm. T. Sherman) until he reached the age of 18 when he returned home to be the head of the family.

His first job was to clear the land of timber, to make a farm. The Author, (Simon Boyer, Deshler, O.), heard him say he would haul wheat to Lancaster, Ohio, twenty miles from New Baltimore, where he could get 50¢ a bushel for it. He would take the wheat by canal. He also helped to build the National highway, now U.S. 40. (Interstate 70)

On April 16, 1829, he m. Rebecca Bibler. Her parents had lived in Virginia. The date the father of Rebecca moved to Ohio, is not known, but we do know there were Biblers living in Fairfield, O., as early as 1803.

In 1834, a cousin of Rebecca Newell, who had settled in Jackson Township, Hancock County, Ohio, returned to visit her. His accounts of the new country must have been very flattering, for the entire Newell family and that of Abraham and Elizabeth Bibler, father-in-law of William Newell, decided to locate in Jackson Township, Hancock County, Ohio.

On Dec. 24, 1834, David Bibler, a brother of Rebecca Newell, arrived in Jackson Township, Hancock Co., Ohio, to make preparations towards moving the Bibler and Newell families to what was to be their new home. The following Feb., William Newell arrived to assist him. By April 1835, they had made sufficient progress for David Bibler to return to Fairfield Co. and pilot the families to their new homes. According to the Findlay Republican, dated Nov., 1900 in relation to the early settlers "David Bibler and family brought with them four horses, three "milch" cows, forty head of fine sheep and some other domestic animals. The sheep became exhausted with the long trip and they were forced to leave them in the care of an Indian chief. A short time later they saw the wolves kill twenty of this flock. There were no roads and at that time it was a long and tedious trip. Between Tymochtee and Gary, the wagons became mired in the mud hub deep and it was only after tremendous exertion that they were able to free the wagons". The Bilber family consisted of father, mother, three sons and six daughters. They remained with the William Newell family until they could build a cabin of their own. The Biblers were Baptists and the Newells were Methodists.

William Newell continued to live in Jackson Township until 1860. He sold the 100 acres that he had entered in 1833 and bought 240 acres of heavily timbered land in Section 12, Van Buren Township, Putnam Co., Ohio, at the age of 57. It was only a short time later when three of his sons, Thomas, Abraham and William answered Lincoln's call for volunteers by enlisting in the 99 O.V.I. Then his eldest son, Jackson, enlisted in the 1st C.H.V. Far past the prime of life, he was left alone in these woodlands with only the help of his youngest daughter, Barbara, to help clear the land and plant the crops. The tax on the land was so great that he sold all but 80 acres of the original 240 acres to his sons. He did not live to see more than half of this 80 acres cleared for cultivation. Your historian has in his possession, cloth woven from flax and grown on this homestead by his mother, Barbara, because cotton cloth could not be purchased during the Civil War. (Historian: Simon Boyer, Deshler, Ohio).

On April 16, 1889, William and Rebecca Newell celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary. All their children were present except their daughter Mary, who lived in Ark. At this time, there were 48 grandchildren and 42 great grandchildren.

Rebecca Newell was the wife of a pioneer and raised a family of eight children almost without the services of a physician. From the death of her youngest daughter, Priscilla, in 1850, to the death of her eldest son, Jackson, there was not a death among her children for over sixty years.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the origin of life. It is shown that the problem is one of the most important and interesting in the history of science. The author discusses the various theories of the origin of life, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of spontaneous generation. This theory is based on the fact that life is everywhere, and that it is impossible to find a place where it did not originate. The author also discusses the question of the origin of the first living organisms, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of the origin of life from non-living matter. This theory is based on the fact that the elements of life are everywhere, and that it is impossible to find a place where they did not originate. The author also discusses the question of the origin of the first living organisms, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of the origin of life from non-living matter. This theory is based on the fact that the elements of life are everywhere, and that it is impossible to find a place where they did not originate.

(6F) - THOMAS VAN BUREN NEWELL (1862-1958)

Thomas Van Buren Newell, b. Sept. 1, 1862 in Putman Co., Ohio, d. Jan. 25, 1958 Loveland, Colo., m. Sept. 11, 1894 at Cols. Grove, Ohio to Martha Belle Harbaugh, b. Jan. 28, 1868 at Cols. Grove, Ohio, d. Nov. 27, 1906 Loveland, Colo. Issue: Leland Ireneous, Thomas Edmund, Leonard Jackson, Paul Augustus. Later m. March 30, 1920 Denver, Colo. - Dora Elizabeth Hull, b. Feb. 17, 1884 Ft. Jennings, Ohio, d. Sept. 25, 1962 Martinez, Calif. Issue: Elizabeth Jane, James Whitcomb, Robert Fitch.

The Reverend Thomas Van Buren Newell, known as "Tom" or "Tommy", had no formal schooling until he was 19 years of age. After that time he completed both an elementary and secondary education in the Fostoria, Ohio Grade and Preparatory Schools, later studied at what is now Ohio Northern University at Ada, Ohio. He taught school for 7 years, held pastorates in the Sandusky Conference of the United Brethern Church for 4 years then enrolled at Bonebrake Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio where he received a Bachelor of Divinity Degree in 1902.

At this time because his wife contracted pulmonary tuberculosis, he moved his family to Colorado and accepted a United Brethern pastorate at Elbert. His work included preaching at small churches over the countryside which he reached on horseback or in a buggy or buckboard. To provide for his children and his wife who was gravely ill, it was necessary for him to make use of his many talents and boundless energy. He built houses and barns, and broke wild horses for ranchers in the area as well as preaching. A year later, he had to give up his pastorate and they moved to Loveland where he began farming and ranching. They bought part of an original homestead near Loveland and later homesteaded ranchland, 15 miles to the west at Pinewood in the heart of the Rockies. This was when the state of Colorado was but 26 years old.

Martha Belle died in 1906 and Thomas kept his four sons together until they reached manhood. He then married Martha Belle's first cousin, Dora Elizabeth Hull, and reared 3 more children, remaining on the old homestead for 54 years, until he died at the age of 95 years.

Thomas was a man with many outstanding characteristics. He had a deep and abiding religious faith that never faltered in his 95 years and his avid thirst for knowledge continued through his entire life. He was a respected leader in his community and profited least of all who knew him in the fruits of his labor. Though he was only 5'5" tall and of slender build, he had a physical constitution and mental attitude equal to his inexhaustible energy, perseverance, courage and high ideals.

The influence he yielded in the lives of his children and grandchildren was profound. The confidence and resourcefulness he instilled in them enabled them to get good educations and become useful citizens. Six of his 7 children had 4 or more years of college and 4 obtained doctors' degrees in Medicine, Veterinary Medicine and Education. Here it truly can be said was a small man of great stature, kind and generous.

(5B) - John Newell, second child of William Newell and Rebecca (Bibler) Newell, b. May 8, 1832 in Fairfield Co., Ohio, d. Dec. 20, 1915, m. Mary M. Pattingall Aug. 12, 1855, (d. Dec. 17, 1881). To this union, 8 children were born; two boys and three girls died in infancy. In 1883 m. Nan M. Gowing, (d. Oct. 26, 1894). In 1897 m. Sarah A. Blackmer, (d. Apr. 11, 1911).

The greater portion of his remaining years, he lived in the home of his son, Adam Newell. He d. in the home of his grandson, George Newell, in Burnips Corners, Mich. Settled in Allegan Co., Mich. 1855 which at that time was mostly dense forest. It was necessary to blaze the trees through one mile of timber in order to find his way to and from the land that he entered. He paid the government $1.25 per acre for the land. This land was situated one mile from any road. From the timber, he built a log cabin for his home. A fireplace was built to serve the purpose of preparing the meals, doing the laundry and heating the home. Their furniture was made of hewn wood as there were no saw mills, and consisted of table, some stools and a bedstead. The table was made of a slab split from a big tree, hewn flat with a broad axe and had large holes bored in the under side and legs driven into these holes. Nails could not be obtained. The stools were constructed the same way. The bedstead was built of poles and bark of trees laced across to support the bed. The nearest town was Grand Rapids, 40 miles away. The road lay through the forest and a trip was made twice a year, once in the spring and once in the fall.

John Newell was a devout member of the Salem United Brethern Church of Allegan Co., Mich. He was a trustee of this church at the time of the division of the United Brethern denomination. Both of the parties claimed the church building. This case was carried to the courts and finally decided by the Supreme Court of Mich. The liberal side won, of which he was a member.

He was a man of small stature, despised debt to such an extent that he never went into debt for anything. He accumulated a competence during his lifetime. Sold his farm and bought another a couple of times but never far from his original homestead.

DESCENDENTS OF (4D) - JOSEPH VANCE NEWELL (1809-1899)

FOURTH CHILD OF THOMAS NEWELL

AND

BARBARA (MILLER) NEWELL

July 1890

University of California, Berkeley

Office of the President

Dear Sir:

(4D) - Joseph Vance Newell, fourth child of Thomas Newell and Barbara (Miller) Newell, b. July 20, 1809 in Shenandoah County, Virginia. (News item from Findlay paper, Findlay, Ohio):

"The death of another pioneer was added Saturday to the unusually large list of old persons who have passed away during the past few months. This time it is Joseph Newell, who had been a resident of Jackson Township since 1836. He was born in Shenandoah County, Virginia July 20, 1809, his parents being Thomas and Barbara Newell. In 1812, the family moved to Fairfield County of this state. The father died three years later and in 1825, the mother with her one son, Joseph, and three daughters, Mrs. Isaac Morrisson, Mrs. Adam Hoy and Mrs. Samuel Moffit, moved to Jackson township, this county, (Hancock county), Ohio. Mrs. Newell afterwards moved to Illinois where she died in 1860.

Joseph Newell, was married in 1835 to Miss Barbara Bibler of Fairfield county. A year later he came to Jackson Township and entered into possession of 160 acres. Their children are: Mrs. Harriett Doty, Mrs. Asenath Altman, Joseph P. Newell, Mrs. Minerva Oman, Mrs. Emma Peterman, Louisa Newell and Mrs. Sarah Morgan.

Mr. Newell was an upright man in all his dealing and had the respect of all who knew him. He filled the office of Township trustee for 6 years being an earnest and conscientious Republican. He was strictly a self-made man, beginning life as a pioneer and later years becoming one of the influential men of his community. For the past few years, he had been an invalid, his daughter, Louisa, taking care of him at the old homestead. His death was due to the infirmities incident to his advanced age. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the Newell Church and burial will take place in the Bibler Cemetery".

Barbara Newell was born in Fairfield County, Ohio, d. April 20, 1896. He d. Jan. 7, 1899.

"One hundred and fourteen guests, ranging in age from ten weeks to 80 years and including nine guests who attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thomas of McComb, 40 years ago, were present for the anniversary celebration given in the Thomas home at McComb, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas started the day by attending church services at the Church of Christ where they have been members since 1905. On their return, a family dinner was served by Mrs. Gaylon Thomas and Mrs. Rolly Henry. Pictures were taken by Paul Soldner after the dinner.

Novel decorations were used in the dining room. The rug on which Mr. and Mrs. Thomas stood when they were married 40 years ago was placed at the entrance of the room and on display were the wedding gifts received by the couple at their wedding in 1907.

Mr. & Mrs. Gaylon Thomas arranged a table display of pictures and miniatures depicting events in the life of the couple. There were pictures of their parents, Mr. & Mrs. John Opp and Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Thomas, a miniature bride and groom dressed in the styles of 1907 and a picture of a sightseeing bus in New York. On a second tier of the table were tiny baby buggies and cradles marked with the dates of the births and marriages of each of the couple's children and grandchildren including:

Mrs. Rolly Henry and daughters Bonnie and Betty and Gaylon Thomas and his daughter, Sue Ellen of Bluffton.

The following is a newspaper account of the Golden Wedding Celebration of Mr. and Mrs. John Cosner:

Milan, Mich., Aug. 6, 1953

Sunday was a Golden day and particularly for Mr. and Mrs. John Cosner, who observed their 50th Wedding Anniversary. This worthy couple who have been pillars of the Methodist church throughout their entire lives, fittingly began their observance at their church home.

A family dinner was served by the committee of the W.S.C.S. of which Mrs. Cosner is a member and Mrs. Theron Wanty was the chairman. A few close friends joined the family for this affair and an interesting program was given. Their son, Earl Cosner, acted as MC. and also rendered musical numbers with his wife. Mrs. Clayton Wolner accompanied them on the piano. The daughter, Mrs. Harlan Brost and son Donald, also sang a duet and a cousin, Norman Cosner of Detroit, gave a saxophone solo with Mrs. Ward at the piano. Present also was the former pastor of the local church, the Rev. William Johnson and Mrs. Johnson of Morenci, Mich. Rev. and Mrs. Hughes returned from their vacation to aid in the observance.

There were 282 guests registered at the family home and the social hours were filled with reminiscences and happy predictions for the future of Mr. and Mrs. Cosner.

Married Aug. 4, 1903 in Findlay, Ohio, they lived for a few years on a farm near there, then moved to Milan, Mich., where they purchased a 100 acre farm near Milan and lived there until their son Earl took over and the parents moved to 13920 Sanford Road.

Both have led most active lives not only in their church but in farm organizations and civic projects. Mr. Cosner helped to organize the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau approximately 40 years ago and has seen its growth and development. He also was on the membership sale committee of the Michigan Milk Producers Association during its organization a few years later.

Mr. Cosner served as Supervisor for Washetnaw County for 10 years, 1939-1949 and for 7 years was Chairman of the Production Credit Assn. of southeastern Mich., making production loans to farmers for the growing seasons of each year. Mr. and Mrs. Cosner helped to organize the Oakville farmers club about 20 years ago.

The Cosners are the parents of 4 living children: Earl, at the farm home, Mrs. Harold Dentel of Isa, Mich., Mrs. Arthur White of Maybe, Mich., and Mrs. Harlan Brost of Monroe, Mich. There are 18 grandchildren.
